Your dad belongs to a group who made a lot of rules that he never had anything to do with, and because he's wired the same as everybody else, he needs to feel he's accepted. To be accepted, he has to be seen to go by the rules. If he didn't he'd become a threat to the group, and they'd reject him. And nobody can take that. Look around and watch all the crazy things people get into just so they can feel they belong to something that matters." He wasn't entirely sure why he had given the place another? and so maudlin? name by which he usually. CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX. "That's a gamble we'll have to take," Sirocco said. "Stern will hardly order them to fire on the rest of the ship if he's in it." The group at the west gate surrendered shortly afterward and turned out to be just a handful and a lot of decoy devices. The transporter was picked up on radar heading low and fast away across the Medichironian, and two Terran interceptors on standby at Canaveral base were dispatched in pursuit. They overtook it just as it was crossing the far shore, and turned it around by firing two warning missiles, then escorted it to Canaveral, where its occupants were taken into custody by SD's. This globe rotates on a spindle of gold. A peglegged, parrot-petting pirate said exactly that, in one tale or. She nodded. "To both the moons, and we've sent missions to all of Alpha's other planets. But that was quite a while ago now, with the original drive. There is a program planned to establish permanent bases around the system, but we've deferred building the ships to do it until we've decided how they'll be powered. That's why the Kuan-yin's being made into a test-bed. It wouldn't really be a smart idea to rush into building lots of regular fusion drives that might be obsolete in ten years. There's plenty to do on Chiron in the meantime, so there's no big hurry." She turned her face toward him and rubbed her cheek. Sirocco shrugged. "Well, Kalens's wife is always going places with Veronica, so they're obviously good friends. Swyley noticed something funny between you and Veronica at that party we went to at Shirley's, and that was the connection he figured out," Sirocco shrugged again. "I mean, it's none of my business, of course, and I don't want to know if it's true or not He paused and looked at Colman hopefully for a second. "Is it?" allowed to go free. Not ever. twilight, Micky proceeded with caution. Her wariness didn't halt her altogether, because she was certain. If Death had pockets in his robe, they smelled like this filthy carpet. Nauseating waves of righteous anger. "I see . . ." Lechat couldn't pretend to be as surprised as he would have been ten minutes earlier. With an effort, the SD major bared his teeth and stretched his lips back almost to his ears. "Excuse me, sir, ' but do you have a few minutes you could spare?" "What little orange lady would that be?" Noah asked. "And whether it was by design or accident, they've managed to solve a lot of other problems too," Eve said. "Take crime for instance. Theft and greed are impossible, because how can you steal another man's competence? Oh, you could try and fake it, I suppose, but you wouldn't last long with people as discerning as Chironians. They can see through a charlatan as quickly as we can spot ourselves being shortchanged. In fact to 'them that's just what it is. They have their violent moments, sure, but nothing as bad as what's coming in from Africa on the beam right now, or what happened in 2021. But it never turns into a really big problem. There's no motivation for anyone to rally round a would-be Napoleon. He wouldn't have anything to offer that anybody needs."...thee with a work of art fair suitable for the galleries of Eden."...Maybe something hideous does lurk in there. Perhaps awaiting Curtis is a discovery far more disgusting."What I really need is a beer." Merrick knotted his brows for a moment and then seemed to decide to abandon his attempt to approach the subject obliquely. "Approximately ten thousand of our people are now in Canaveral City and its immediate vicinity." Merrick looked straight at Bernard. "They depend heavily on Chironian services and facilities of every description for the power that runs their homes to the very food they eat. If widespread trouble were to break out down there, they would be completely at the mercy of the Chironians." He raised a hand to stifle any objection before Bernard could speak. "Clearly we cannot tolerate such a state of affairs. It has been decided therefore that, purely as a precautionary measure to protect our own people if the need should arise, we must be able to guarantee the continuity of essential services if circumstances should." "Would you expect me to say so if it was?" Colman asked. - "Too bad. How come?" It was a nice feeling...hauling ice cream or meat, cheese or frozen dinners, flatbeds laden with concrete pipe and construction. These people form a gauntlet of sorts through which Curtis and Old Yeller must pass. Twisting, dodging...Hesitantly, he eases open the driver's door and slips out of the SUV. onto the bed of the transport..."Aunt Gen, you're thinking of The Man with the Golden Arm. Frank Sinatra, Kim Novak. It hit theaters."Anything to publicize what we've said . . . broadcast the facts at Phoenix and up at the Mayflower II over Chironian communications beams. At least some of the population would hear it . . . the word would soon be spread. . . , I don't know . . . whatever would bring word to the mod people in the shortest time for greatest effect."...A round container, rather like a hatbox, stood on the bed; its red lid lay to one side...Sirocco resumed twiddling his moustache. "Besides, I couldn't let you have the monopoly, could I-on all the decent ones, I mean." He was giving Colman a strange look, as if he was trying to find out about something that he didn't want to put into words...Bernard stared at him in open disbelief. "You're not saying she'd simply back down? That's crazy!"...in the bedroom doorway. Old Yeller isn't a Great Dane, thank God, but she's not a Chihuahua, either...The officers exchanged some words with the Chironians, then Portney and Wesserman approached the aircraft to survey the interior. After a few seconds Portney nodded to himself, then turned his head to nod again, back at Sirocco. Sirocco beckoned and one of two waiting ambulances moved forward to the Chironian aircraft Two soldiers opened its rear doors. Four others climbed inside the aircraft and began? moving bodies. As each body bag was brought out, Sirocco turned the top back briefly while an aide compared the face to pictures on a compact screen and another checked dogtag numbers against a list he was holding, after which the corpse was transferred to the ambulance...Leilani didn't suggest that an Egyptian queen who had reigned more than two thousand years ago...and the plaque of dust gritting between his teeth could not have been more vile. He is unable to work up."You don't understand," Jay said. "On Earth, a lot of people would see that as their big ambition in life."...The Chironians on channel eight are requesting a report, sir."...As she negotiated the fallen pickets and crossed the neglected sun-browned lawn next door, the faint."I'm not sure I believe in life before death," Micky said..."Yeah, well, by nature I'm a huge pudding. By this hour, old Sinsemilla would have been...from movies and books, but from experience with animals in the past...Geneva set a platter of sliced chicken on the table. "Didn't you notice?we have three place settings this...task is to stop any SD's getting out and, more important, to stop Stern and his people from getting in if things go well and they realize they can't hold the rest of the ship. What we have to prevent at all costs is Stern and Stormbel get/ ting in there and detaching the module so that it can threaten the rest of the Mayflower II as well as the planet."When I went to Port Norday with Jay, I found out that they're planning a new complex farther north. They're going to need engineers-fusion engineers. They practically told me I'd have no problem getting in there, to a top job maybe, Think of it-our own place just like we've always said, and no more crap from Merrick or any of them!" Bernard threw his hands high. "I could be me for the first time in my life. . . and so could you, all of us. We don't have to listen to them telling us who we are and what we have to be ever again. Doesn't that..." His voice trailed away as he saw that it wasn't having the effect he had hoped. Jean was backing away through the door, shaking her head in mute protest...Waiters slipped off his jacket and hung it in the closet by the door after taking a book from the inside pocket. Fallows frowned but made no comment..."The cloak-and-dagger aspect ought to be fun, and the sleuthing. I've always loved the Rex Stout...everyone else perished...Bernard decided to play along to see what happened. "I'm sorry-how do you mean, last time? I must be missing something..."Old Yeller either reacts to this serenade of bleats or to an instinctive realization that time to escape is fast."Bad enough," he admitted...unnervingly intense interest...JEAN FALLOWS WAS beginning to hate Chiron, the Chironians, and everything to do with the lawless, godless, alien, hostile place. After twenty years of the familiar day-to-day and month-to-month routine of life aboard the Mayflower II, she missed the warmth and protectiveness that she had grown to know and yearned to be back amid the sane, civilized surroundings that she understood. She understood a way of life in which budget and necessity decided priorities of need, in which clear rules set limits of behavior, and where tried and trusted protocols defined role and function-her own as well as everybody else's; she did not understand, or even want to understand, the swirling ocean of anarchy in which she now found herself, in which individuals were expected to flounder helplessly like paper boats tossed in a tempest, with no charted shores, no havens of anchor, and no guiding stars. She had no place in it, and she desired no place in it. Secretly she dreamed of a miracle that would turn the Mayflower II around and embark her on another twenty-year voyage, back to Earth..."How far have they penetrated?" Colman asked...Leilani looked toward the kitchen window but seemed to be gazing at something far away in time and at
